This summer CAM takes you into artists' studios across St. Louis with our 6th Annual City-Wide Open Studios. Free and open to the public, City-Wide Open Studios offers a unique opportunity for the St. Louis public to explore the creative spaces of local artists while providing the ability to enjoy one of the most exciting parts of contemporary art—the chance to talk with the artists themselves!

Open Studios offers a unique opportunity for the St. Louis public to explore the creative spaces of local artists while providing the ability to enjoy one of the most exciting parts of contemporary art—the chance to talk with the artists themselves!

You and your friends are invited to enjoy a wonderful summer weekend exploring 161 local artists' studios across the city. Participating artists work in a wide range of media including painting, photography, sculpture, mixed media, fiber arts, ceramics, jewelry, wood, glass, metal, video, new media, and performance art. The locations of all participating artist studios are listed on this map to help you plan your weekend studio visits.
