FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CAM presents Art Up Late: Louie, Louie, a St. Louis-themed after-hours dance party, Friday, June 15 Original artwork for Louie, Louie by Addoley Dzegede, 2018 Great Rivers Biennial winner.

May 17, 2018 (St. Louis, MO) - The Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis (CAM) announces Art Up Late: Louie, Louie, the latest in the museum's series of after-hours dance parties. Louie, Louie takes its lead from the current Great Rivers Biennial, featuring St. Louis artists Addoley Dzegede, Sarah Paulsen, and Jacob Stanley. In celebration of our city, Louie, Louie is a night to take unabashed pride in the music, games, cuisine, and art that defines St. Louis.

CAM DJ-in-residence 18andCounting (selected by the Riverfront Times as one of the top music acts of 2018) will be providing sounds and visuals to the night's entertainment. Such iconic summer St. Louis lawn games as cornhole, washers, and bocce will be played in the CAM courtyard. Cuisine will include some of the city's signature favorites along with beer from St. Louis brewmasters.

Louie, Louie is a night to channel the moves of Tina Turner (Sumner High School '58), exude the joie de vivre of John Goodman (Affton High School '70), mix and mingle like Andy Cohen (Clayton High School '86), and celebrate our city like Sterling K. Brown (MICDS, '94). An exciting array of St. Louis experiences will be available for auction as well. All proceeds benefit CAM's dynamic exhibitions and innovative education programs.
