

Calling all artists grades 9–12!

New Art in the Neighborhood
Saturdays, January 19–April 5, 2019
Noon–4:00 pm

This free and nationally-acclaimed program seeks to nourish the creative minds of our city's talented young artists. Every Saturday afternoon during the school year, up to 20 teens (grades 9–12) are selected for pre-professional-level art instruction with educational staff and visiting artists at CAM. This intensive approach provides students opportunities and resources that are not available in their regular school curriculum. With NAN+, an optional morning program that meets prior to the afternoon session, students may focus on building and strengthening portfolios suitable for applications for university study or employment. Students who participate in NAN for two consecutive semesters are eligible for three hours of college credit at select universities.

Contemporary Art
Museum St. Louis
3750 Washington Blvd
St. Louis, MO 63108

Applications due December 15, 2018.
Apply at camstl.org/nan.