FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CAM announces new DJ-in-residence for 2019.

January 24, 2019 (St. Louis, MO) - The Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis (CAM) announces its new DJ-in-residence, Syrhea Conaway, a St. Louis-based musician who performs as Syna So Pro. Conaway has been described as “a one woman musical enigma.” A multi-instrumentalist, she plays violin, guitar, keyboards, bass, and sings, mixing these sounds into variable loops, piece by piece, to stitch together intertwining melodies, chord progressions, and a startling range of effects and beats to create her extraordinary musical soundscapes.

CAM’s DJ residency provides an annual, nine-month performance cycle to a local music artist. The DJ-in-residence performs at all First Fridays at CAM and at other exhibition- and program-related events. Syna So Pro was selected by the Riverfront Times as one of its top musical acts in 2017. Her performance for To the Best of Our Knowledge was broadcast live from the Sheldon in June 2017. The DJ residency is another way in which CAM appeals to new audiences at the Museum and supports local artists. CAM participates in the Grand Center Arts District’s First Friday every month, offering exhibition tours, drinks in Rise Café, and through 2019, the music of Syna So Pro.
