February 27, 2019 (St. Louis, MO) - The Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis (CAM) introduces Brooklyn-based, Atlanta-native music artist Fusilier at the Dada Bash after-party, Saturday, March 2. Fusilier's sound has been described as avant-funk, a mix of R&B and soul, with a voice "smooth and sultry" backed up by a sexy driving bassline. Providing music for zero-gravity dancing throughout the Bash will be local favorite DJ Agile One. Just added to the Bash entertainment lineup is Sailem from Hell, the "Hellbound Hussy."

CAM's notorious fundraiser, the Dada Ball & Bash, benefits the Museum's stellar exhibitions and inspiring education programs. This year's party theme, "We are made of star-stuff," is inspired by the current exhibition, Christine Corday: RELATIVE POINTS. Corday's site-specific installation encourages us to consider our relationship to the cosmos. The Dada Ball & Bash celebrates the star-stuff in us all.
