September 26, 2019 (St. Louis, MO) – The Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis (CAM) announces Open Studios STL, with more than 120 artist studios and art spaces open to the public over the course of one weekend, October 19–20, 2019. Now in its fourteenth year, Open Studios STL offers the chance to meet St. Louis artists, see the spaces where they work, and learn about their creative process. Open Studios STL provides art lovers the opportunity to explore on their own as well as join local curators and arts professionals in discussions with participating artists.

This celebration of St. Louis talent begins with an Artists Reception at CAM, Thursday, October 17, 5:30–7:00 pm. Visitors are invited to meet participating artists, local arts professionals, and CAM curators and staff for a special Drink in Art happy hour, with DJ James Biko providing the music for the evening.

Ten guest studio visits are scheduled for the weekend. The public is invited to these informal discussions between artists and a selection of esteemed local curators and journalists, held in individual artists' studios. The arts professionals are: Wassan Al-Khudhairi, Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis; Jessica Baran, projects+gallery; Jacqui Germain, writer; Jeremy Goodwin, St. Louis Public Radio; Amy Granat, Parapet / Real Humans; Misa Jeffereis, Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis; Marianne Laury, Granite City Art and Design District; Meredith Malone, Mildred Lane Kemper Art Museum; Lauren Ross, Laumeier Sculpture Park; and MK Stallings, UrbArts.

A complete list of artists with images of their work; the guest studio visit schedule; and an interactive map are available at openstudios-stl.org.

About the Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis

The Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis (CAM) presents, supports, and celebrates the art of our time. It is the premier museum in St. Louis dedicated to contemporary art. Focused on a dynamic array of changing exhibitions, CAM provides a thought-provoking program that reflects and contributes to the global cultural landscape. Through the diverse perspectives offered in its exhibitions, public programs, and educational initiatives, CAM actively engages a range of audiences to challenge their perceptions. It is a site for discovery, a gathering place in which to experience and enjoy contemporary visual culture. CAM is located in the Grand Center Arts District.
