FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CAM public programs and events are postponed until further notice.

March 13, 2020 (St. Louis, MO) - The Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis (CAM) announces that in light of declarations from the offices of the Mayor of St. Louis City and the Executive of St. Louis County, and in consideration of the health and well-being of our community, the institution has chosen to postpone public programs and events through April 5, until further notice. CAM remains open to the public during regular museum hours.

CAM continues to monitor the latest developments regarding COVID-19 both locally and nationally, and follows guidelines stipulated by the Centers for Disease Control and St. Louis City and County public health officials. CAM has taken extraordinary measures to clean and disinfect the entire building regularly.

CAM Executive Director Lisa Melandri says, "The health and safety of our visitors and staff is our top priority. We are asking everyone, if you do not feel well or believe you have been exposed to the coronavirus, please stay home."

A list of events postponed or canceled through April 5:

- March 14 Stroller Tours & Play Dates; St. Louis Exchange
- March 19 RE: Soul
- March 25 In the Studio: Rachel Youn
- March 30 Feast Your Eyes
- April 3 First Friday

New Art in the Neighborhood and LEAP Middle School Initiative classes are postponed until further notice.
