FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CAM joins PLAN YOUR VOTE to encourage voter registration at the museum

Sanford Biggers, Guerilla Girls, Marilyn Minter for PLANYOURVOTE.org.

September 10, 2020 (St. Louis, MO) - The Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis partners with PLAN YOUR VOTE to urge all eligible voters to: Register if you haven't already. Verify your registration if you have any doubt. Check your absentee status if you aren't sure. Set a reminder in case you forget. Beginning Thursday, September 17, CAM staff and volunteers are available to register eligible Missouri voters and offer free notarization of absentee ballots at the museum. Take part in the election process and experience contemporary art at the same time!

PLAN YOUR VOTE is a 2020 initiative of Vote.org to promote and empower citizens in the exercise of their voting rights. Other institutional partners include Institute of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles; Institute of Contemporary Art Boston; The Walker Art Center; Brooklyn Museum; and the Wexner Center for the Arts. Participating artists who have designed artwork to promote the initiative include Katherine Bernhardt, Sanford Biggers, Christine Sun Kim, Julie Mehretu, Marilyn Minter, and Patti Smith.

What: Voter registration and ballot notarization

Where: Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis, Front Desk

When: Sep 17–Oct 10, 2020, Thursdays and Fridays 10:00 am–12:30pm, Saturdays 3:00–4:00 pm

Visitors are reminded that safety guidelines are being observed at the museum, including masks required for staff and visitors (3+). Timed-ticketing is recommended. Walk-ins welcome depending on availability based on safe occupancy limits.
