August 8, 2023 (St. Louis, MO) - The Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis (CAM) announces an exhibition of new works by Dominic Chambers, the first in the artist's hometown of St. Louis. The exhibition brings together a series of new large-scale paintings and sculpture by the artist, a rising star in the art world who has recently been featured on Forbes magazine's "30 Under 30" list as one of the most promising artists of his generation. As part of the exhibition, CAM will also produce the first exhibition catalog of Chambers' work. **Dominic Chambers: Birthplace** will be on view at CAM from September 8, 2023–February 11, 2024.

Chambers is known for his vibrant, evocative paintings that depict Black subjects in moments of contemplation and leisure. Consistent throughout his oeuvre is the rich interior lives of his subjects. At times restful and meditative, and other times scholarly and curious, his subjects are almost always spirited away by the magic of reading and respite. In his luminous and deeply absorbing paintings, Chambers has explored contemporary concerns around race, personal and imagined narratives, and the complexity of one's interior life. As an artist and writer, Chambers often draws inspiration from critical voices within the Black literary canon—particularly the writings of W. E. B. Du Bois, Octavia Butler, and Zora Neale Hurston. These influences take visual form in Chambers' surreal landscapes and psychologically arresting portraits that present meditations on stillness and a radical interiority for his figures.

In Birthplace, Chambers recalls the spaces which facilitated his inner awakening as an artist and nurtured his imagination. Classrooms, playgrounds, libraries, and basketball courts are all represented within the exhibition, and each holds significant meaning to the artist's origin story. The works are invitations to reflect upon and celebrate environments essential to our social development and collective imagination.

"We are delighted and honored to present Dominic's first solo museum show in the formative city that nurtured his creativity as a young artist," said Executive Director Lisa Melandri. "All of Dominic's paintings—and in an exciting departure in his practice, a sculpture—are new and feature iconic spaces within our city: Fairground Park, the Saint Louis Art Museum, and Art Hill, to name a few. We are thrilled to share Birthplace with our audiences, which promises to be a homecoming exhibition like no other."

An exhibition publication will accompany Dominic Chambers: Birthplace, featuring an introduction by Wassan Al-Khudhairi and an interview with Chambers and curator and scholar Tiffany E. Barber, Assistant Professor of African American Art at the University of California-Los Angeles. Designed by Marquand Books and distributed by D.A.P., the catalog will be published by CAM and released in fall 2023.

This exhibition is generously supported in part by George Wells, Barbara and Richard Rothschild, Anonymous, Ferring Family Foundation, Ann R. Ruwitch and John Fox Arnold, and the Whitaker Foundation. The exhibition publication is underwritten by the Jessica and Kelvin Beachum Family Collection. Special thanks to Lehmann Maupin. The artist talk is sponsored by the Robert Lehman Foundation.

About the Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis

The Contemporary Art Museum St. Louis creates meaningful engagement with the most relevant and innovative art being made today. Founded by civic and cultural leaders in 1980, the Museum transformed from a small gallery into an internationally recognized arts institution, now permanently housed in a flexible, open, and inviting building designed by renowned American architect Brad Cloepfil. CAM's distinct architecture reflects the organization's values and supports a dynamic range of exhibitions, public programs, educational initiatives, and community collaborations. The only museum in the region solely dedicated to contemporary art, CAM is one of the preeminent non-collecting institutions of its kind in the United States. We are a site for discovery, a welcoming space, free and open to all. For more information, visit camstl.org.
